A lawsuit may affect you. Please read this carefully.

A class action is happening for people who were alive as of April 10, 2015 and eligible for ministry-funded adult developmental services and supports and funding, who were assessed by an application entity (DSO) and placed on these service registries between July 1, 2011 to December 14, 2018:

- (i) “residential services and supports“ and ,
- (ii) “caregiver respite services and supports” under the Services and Supports to Promote the Social Inclusion of Persons with Developmental Disabilities Act, 2008; and
- (iii) “Passport” funding under the Ministry of Community and Social Services Act.

If you are a Class member, you can choose to stay in or leave the Class.

Option 1: Stay in the class action: To stay in the class action, you do not have to do anything. If money or benefits are obtained, you will be told about how to make a claim. You will be legally bound by all orders and judgments in the class action, and you will not be able to sue Ontario separately about the legal claims in this case.

Option 2: Get out of the class action: If you want to leave the class action, you must submit an opt out form by July 26, 2024. Opt out forms are available here: kmlaw.ca/waitlistclassaction. You can also opt out by writing to Class Counsel at the address below and telling them that you want to be removed from this class action. Please include your name, address, telephone number and/or email address in the letter and have it post marked by July 26, 2024. If you remove yourself, you cannot get money or benefits from this lawsuit if any are awarded.

The Court has appointed Koskie Minsky LLP ("Class Counsel") to represent the Class. You don't have to pay Class Counsel to participate. If they get money or benefits for the Class, they may ask for lawyers' fees and costs which would be deducted from any money obtained or to be paid separately by Ontario.
